6.2.2 Documentary evidence in support of the claim

The functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient, as visible from policies, administrative set-up and appointments and service rules and procedures, as each entity is documented, implemented and uploaded to the website by the institution. The institutional bodies and policies at the strategic and functional levels focus on the execution through collaboration and democratic autonomy. The features of the constitution of various strategic and functional level institutional bodies are documented in the academic calendar as well the details of norms and rules concerning Appointments, Services Rules and Code of Conduct of Principal, teaching and non-teaching staff and the students are uploaded in the college website for the perusal of the members of the institution and the stakeholders.
